

ROBYN BENINCASA'S INTRODUCTION

Robyn Benincasa is a World Champion Adventure Racer, a San Diego City Firefighter, and even a CNN Hero, so she definitely knows a thing or two about How Winning Works, and how we build World Class Teams that succeed against the toughest of odds.

She and her teammates have a resume a mile long with all of their accomplishments, and I could go on and on about her, but let's just introduce her the FUN way, and check out this video!
